MEDICINAL.

HOW TO WIN A HUSBAND.

Woman's sphere in this 20th century is not limited any more than is man's. She can occupy almost any business position or profession, and yet the popular view of womanhood is that she best fits the position of wife and mother and head of the household. Every girl should know her heart and also know that her womanly system is equal to the strain of marriage. If a girl is nervous and irritable ten chances to one it is due to some trouble peculiar to womanhood.

Cupid has no place in a girl's heart if she is nervous and irritable, feels dragged down, worn out for no reason that she can think of. The weak back, dizzy spells and black circles about the eyes are only symptoms. Go to the source of the trouble and correct the irregularity. Stop the drains on the womanly system and the other symptoms will disappear. This can be done easily and intelligently. So sure of it is the World's Dispensary Medical Association, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of leucorrhea, female weakness, prolapsus, or falling of the womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

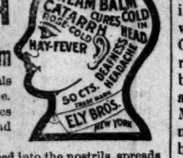
"After confinement I gained no strength," writes Mrs. A. Davis, of Sweetwater, Ala. "Even when my baby was a month old I could hardly do any work. I don't know what to call the disease. I had a weak feeling in the pit of my stomach, felt miserable all over. I was sick three months and a lady friend told me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as it had done her so much good. I did so, and after taking three bottles was cured. This was about five years ago and I have had no return of the disease. Am very thankful for the remedy. I cannot praise your 'Favorite Prescription' enough. It is a wonderful medicine for women."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are gently laxative.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm



cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.

In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use

Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

Accept no substitute—there is none.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

CHARGES AGAINST DENTIST.

Dr. Edward B. Dawson, a well-known young Baltimore denist, who had offices at 1822 north Charles street and at Forest Park, where he resided on Fairview avenue, near Garrison avenue, was indicted yesterday by the grand jury on four charges of felonious assault, alleged to have been committed upon four inmates of the Kelso Home, at Forest Park, a Methodist Episcopal institution established for the purpose of teaching orphan girls to support themselves. He is now a fugitive from justice and the police of every eastern city have been searching for him since early yesterday morning.

Not one of the four girls mentioned in the charges is over 13 years old. It is stated by the manager of the home that about 15 girls, none over 13 years, and many as young as 9 years, have been treated in a similar manner by the dentist, who was employed to do all the work in his professional line for the institution.

The four victims upon whom an actual assault is said to have been committed are: Florence Walton, India Bond, Ruth Landers and Minnie Cole. The indictments charge that the assaults were committed on March 15, October 15, October 29 and November 8, of this year, respectively. Only the four names have been given to the police, and the State's attorney, and the president of the home, Mr. James E. Hooper, stated that the names of the other victims would not be made public until a court and jury decided that all of the witnesses would be needed to convict the fugitive, if caught.

Dawson left Baltimore Saturday morning. His house in Forest Park is closed and his wife is stopping with her mother, Mrs. Mary Macher, on Springdale avenue, near Garrison avenue. The wife and her mother know nothing of the young man's movements after he left the city, but the police have succeeded in following out a few clues and are sanguine of success in making the capture

The manner in which the story of the alleged actions of the dentist leaked out was peculiar, for all of the girls were terrorized, they stated, by Dawson, who threatened to kill them if they revealed to anyone what he had done. He is charged with having started his alleged atrocious work early in March last, and the Cole child is said to have been his last victim, which would indicate that his actions cover a period of about eight months.

It seems remarkable that none of the 15 victims divulged what had transpired until such a length of time had elapsed. The superintendent of the home, Miss Weaver, did not know anything about the matter until last Saturday, when two of the girls told her. Then an investigation followed, and, after Miss Weaver had spoken to the girls, she ascertained the full extent of the dentist's actions. It was then too late to take action that day, and Dawson, who in the meantime had received a warning, left the city without further delay.

Paralyzed by Hazers.

The brutal hazing of Albert T. De Rome, a student at the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art in San Francisco, is the sensation of the moment. All cruelties practiced at other hazings pale in comparision with those to which De Rome was subjected. The perpetrators are to be at once brought to criminal trial. De Rome is paralyed from the hips down, and he supports himself with a cane as he drags his feet along. His injuries are probably permanent. The students call the torture to which De Rome was subjected the "muscle dance," and the effect was produced by shocking the victim with electricity. The fun consisted in watching the involuntary twitching of the muscles under the violent electric impulse. The hazing was in a musty, vile-smelling attic on Clay street. The "muscle dance" was resorted to only after the lad had refused to take certain obscene vows, and when all other methods ordinarly used in college hazing had been vainly exhausted.

De Rome, after a terrible beating, was striped and bound naked to a chair with a metal seat—a chair in imitation of the electrocution instrument. His body was fly-papered and painted. Queer masks were put upon him. He was made ridiculous. His tormentors laughed in savage glee.

Then the electric current was turned on the chair. The shock caused De Rome to writhe. As the victim's legs quivered and kicked convulsively shrieks of merriment came from the inquisitors.

When the mirth was at its height it was suddenly suspected that the boy was avoiding contact with the disks. He had ceased to writhe.

Then, to make certain that he should not escape the full force of the electricity, De Rome was tightly strapped down to the seat and the current was repeatedly turned on again. The cruel ordeal lasted for two hours and a half.

De Rome says that after the two first hours he ceased to feel the pain, and his legs worked under the deadly current, with the automatic movement seen in the limbs of a dead frog when touched with the two poles of an electric battery for anatomical experiments.

On another occasion the students stripped Byron Ware, bound him hand and foot, and threw him in among the young women of the life class. The girls tossed him out again.

Then his tormentors painted him, flypapered him, masked his face and left him, still nude, bound to a chair, just just outside the studio of the girl students. Finally the girls came out and released him.

Work of the Mafia.

As a result of the efforts of the better class of Italians in and around Carbondale, Pa., to rid their colonies of the members of a lawless gang who have been committing many outrages, a street battle occurred at that place last night, which was attended with the loss of two lives and the wounding of one man.

At 8 o'clock last night Santo Carressi, one of the gang, was caught by a constable in the act of holding up and levying tribute on one of the Italians of the colony. The constable and three of the law and order men started to take Carressi to jail. Word was quickly passed to the gang's headquarters in a near-by saloon, and four of them rushed out and opened fire on the constable and his posse. The latter returned the fire. When the attacking party emptied their revolvers they fled, leaving all three of the constable's escort lying in the road with bullets in their bodies. The constable protected himself by holding his prisoner in front of him.

Joseph Tolerico was shot through the head and heart, and died in a few minutes. Frank Ferressi was taken to the Emergency Hospital with a bullet in his breast near the heart and another in the abdomen. He died at midnight. The third victim received a bullet in the arm, and after recovering from the shock was able to walk home. No trace has been found of the fugitive assailants up to a late hour last night.

It is believed the gang is affiliated with the Mafia or some other like organization, as part of the tribute money is sent to a headquarters in New York, according to the statements made by members of the gang when levying tribute.

Among the outrages recently perpetrated was the knifing of four men who refused to pay the tribute. In each instance the victim was called out of his house late at night and slashed across the face. Arrests have been made from time to time by the Carbondale police, but in every case the parties who privately gave the information which led to the arrest could not be induced to testify in public, so fearful were they of the gang.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner, of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

A Good Complexion.

"Sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks restored by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers," so writes S. P. Moore, of Nacogdoches, Tex. A certain cure for billiousness, constipation, etc. Small pill—easy to take—easy to act. Sold by all druggists.

Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Liquid Cream Balm is becoming quite as popular in many localities as Ely's Cream Balm solid. It is prepared for use in atomizers, and is highly prized by those who have been accustomed to call upon physicians for such a treatment. Many physicians are using and prescribing it. All the medicinal properties of the celebrated Cream Balm are contained in the Liquid form, which is 75 cts. including a spraying tube. All druggists, or by mail. Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING. NOV. 29, 1904

SENATOR SCOTT, of West Virginia, has set a pace for those who oppose tariff revision. He has this line printed in red ink across all his correspondence stationery: "Let well enough alone." Each of the letters hereafter sent out by Mr. Scott will bear the flaming reminder that in his idea present conditions are good enough and that there should be no interference by Congress in the shape of a modified tariff bill. Senator Scott is not the only republican Senator who opposes a tarift reduction. Indeed there is a rapid lining up of the "stand-patters" in the Senate against an extra session of Congress for the consideration of tariff revision. The "old guard" is standing shoulder to shoulder against the proposition, believing that by such opposition it can certainly prevent any reduction at present and probably until late in the regular session of Congress beginning in December, 1905. Indeed, Senator Hale, a high priest of protection, has boldly announced that there will be no revision of the tariff, either at this session or at an extra session of the next Congress, and gives as his reason that people of the country by their recent votes sustained the high tariff doctrine held by the republican party. He declares that he will use every effort in his power to prevent any legislation interfering with existing conditions or giving away more than we get in reciprocity treaties. This he says is the meaning of the recent election as he understands it, and continuing says: "President Roosevelt will be too wise to divide his party." It should cause no surprise to learn that the project to call an extra session of Congress and reduce the tariff meets with a hostile reception among the republican Senators. They have been fighting against tariff reduction for a generation, and they have at various intervals raised the level of duties. The victory their party has recently won does not suggest to them the propriety of taking up the issues of the defeated democrats." As the Philadelphia Record says: "The country may get tariff reform from the republican party, but it is quite likely to get a great deal of talk about it and then have to turn to the democrats to make the reduction."

THE President returned to Washington this morning safe and sound from his St. Louis trip and without any attempt having been made to injured him in any shape or form. There is no question that reasonable precautions should be taken by all concerned to make sure of the safety of the President while he resides in the capital or when he is making a tour of the country. But there was altogether too much imperial pomp and parade in the progress of President Roosevelt to St. Louis and return. The safety of the nation's head could be quite as effectively secured without so wide a proclamation of a real or imaginary danger. It may, indeed, be doubted, as suggests the Philadelphia Record, whether the extreme care for his safety does not operate as an incentive to miscreants capable of high crime. The danger is itself a lure.

WHILE the campaign was on Secretary Shaw professed to treat the deficit in the public treasury as a matter of no consequence. Now that it is over and facts must be looked in the face, he will tell Congress in his report, soon to be made public, that the deficit this fiscal year will exceed his estimate of a year ago, and that economy is imperative. He is reported to have told Congressmen privately that by the end of this fiscal year the available cash balance will be down to $50,000,000, and that will be absorbed by the deficit of the year 1906. Concerning this condition of affairs the Philadelphia Record says: "The republicans have got to choose between reducing expenditures, reducing the tariff to a revenue basis or levying stamp taxes."

STATE legislation forbidding the playing of football in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin is being urged by James Francis Rowley of Chicago, whose son died from injuries received in a game on November 5. Parents of sons who have been killed in the season just closed have been asked to co-operate with Mr. Rowley in his efforts. State Senator William Matheys, of Bedford, Ind., whose son was also fatally injured, will introduce a bill in the Indiana legislature. Football has degenerated into slugging matches and considerate people throughout the country are protesting against the manner in which the game is now played.

THE DANGEROUS results incident to hazing are again brought to view by the description given elsewhere of the treatment of a student in a California institution. The victim suffered everything but death during the several hours he was in the hands of his tormentors. Among other inflictions he was tortured by electricity until paralysis set in, and there is reason to believe he will be an invalid for life. Hazing is a pastime resorted to by thoughtless, mischievous and often cruel youngsters, and too much cannot be said in condemnation of the practice.

A DISPATCH from Fall River, Mass., says:

Already the strike has cost Fall River about $3,500,000 in wages and reduced the population of the city by 15,000. Many a merchant is on the verge of bankruptcy and several concerns have been forced to go out of business.

This is a sad, and, it would seem to reasonable people, a most unnecessary condition of affairs.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.

At seven o'clock this morning ended one of the most unique trips ever taken by a President of the United States. Like everything else that he does it was rush, hurry and strive from start to finish. Everything and everybody in the party reached the White House this morning in good condition although tired. What the President felt he expressed at every step along the way. He was "charmed," "delighted," "amazed and thoroughly pleased" at everything that was done for him. Although no trip of a president was ever attended with more apprehension at the start than was this, unless it was the trip which Abraham Lincoln made from Springfield, Illinois, to Washington prior to his inauguration, it proved that there had been no occasion for this feeling. One of the precautions taken was to conceal the exact time at which the President would arrive at a given point and this was worked successfully. At the fair itself eight companies of infantry, a troop of cavalry, a number of marines and five hundred local policemen, in uniform and plain clothes, the Jefferson Guards, under the guidance of regular army officers, and the secret service men of that section co-operating with those who went from Washington and who with these superintended the whole proceeding, guaranteed practical immunity from danger and even annoyance.

The sub-committee of the House committee on appropriations took up the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill today. The bill carries $29,600,000 for the next fiscal year. The appropriation for the present fiscal year made by the last Congress is $28,000,000.

The wedding of Miss Nancy L. C. Leiter, daughter of the late Levi Z. Leiter, the Chicago millionaire, and sister-in-law of Lord Curzon, Viceroy of India, to Major Colin Powys Campbell, of the English army, was solemnized at noon today at the home of the bride's mother on Dupont Circle. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, only the immediate members of the Leiter family, a few very intimate friends and several representatives from the British Embassy attended the wedding. Reverend Roland Cotton Smith, Rector of St. John's Church, conducted the ceremony in the principal drawing room of the Leiter mansion. A wedding breakfast followed, and Major and Mrs. Campbell departed on their long honeymoon which will end with their arrival at the groom's station with his regiment the Central India Horse, in India. Miss Nancy Leiter is the second daughter of L. Z. Leiter. Most of her time during recent years has been spent in England and on the continent. In India Miss Nancy met and became engaged to Major Campbell. Major Campbell is distantly connected with the famous Scotch clan headed by the Duke of Argyle. Major Campbell is about 45 years old. He is the son of a Glasgow clergyman, Rev. Dr. Colin Campbell, who frequently conducted services for Queen Victoria. Major Campbell is of medium weight, slender, with blue eyes, sandy hair and sandy mustache. His army experience covers 20 years.

Speaker Cannon arrived at the Capitol this afternoon, and met several members of Congress and newspapermen. "When I was out on the stump in the last campaign," he said, "I sounded only a single note. Now that the election is over I am singing the same tune. It is—Let well enough alone. There is no hot box. There is no hurry. The newly elected Congress will not organize for a year, and there is no time at the approaching session to consider questions of tariff or tariff revision."

Hearings were resumed this morning before the interstate commerce committee on the complaint of Wm. R. Hearst against the Philadelphia and Reading and other anthracite coal carrying roads. The complainant was represented by C. J. Shearn. Lewis E. Carr, counsel for the Delaware and Hudson, introduced comparative figures of output and prices of that road's mines for 1890 and the years following 1900 as a substitute for a previously submitted statement for the latter period. Mr. Shearn objected, but the commission admitted the evidence for its statistical value, subject to final argument.

The Comptroller of the Currency this morning gave out the following statement regarding the failure of the Citizens National Bank, of Oberlin Ohio: "The Comptroller of the Currency yesterday appointed National Bank Examiner Levi L. Miller, receiver of the Citizens National Bank, of Oberlin, Ohio, which closed its doors yesterday morning in consequence of a run on the bank on Saturday last caused by the suit entered against Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, of Cleveland, who was a heavy borrower of the bank." The resources and liabilities of the bank as shown by its last report of condition to the Comptroller November 10, 1904, were $588,335.18 each.

Postmaster General Wynne announced at the close of the Cabinet meeting today that after the first of the year his department would take up the subject of guessing contests of all kinds and would include those from the mails that have lottery features. Attorney General Moody, upon request of the President and Postmaster General, has rendered an opinion upon two or three sample cases submitted to him. He holds that those contests, conducted by newspapers and magazines, are clearly in violation of the law. Each case will be considered on its merits, says Mr. Wynne, and the privilages of the mails denied only to those concerns that are conducting illegal contests. Among the sample cases passed upon by the Attorney General was one giving a prize for the nearest correct guess as to the total attendance at the World's Fair and another regarding the popular vote for President.

Mrs. Bridget Noe, eighty years old, has asked for a divorce from Louis Noe, of Newark, N. J., on the ground of desertion. The woman declares that Noe left her forty years ago.

Guy Roche, the gambler who was shot twice by "Big Frank" Felton, after a quarrel at Broadway and Thirty-sixth st., New York, on Thursday evening, died Staurday night at the New-York Hospital.

Justice Clark, in New York, yesterday, threw out court the suit for divorce brought against Charles L. Hagemeyer, a wealthy real estate operator, by his second wife, who named the first wife as co-respondent.

It is said that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, as well as the Western Maryland Railroad Company, will bid for Maryland's interests in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, sealed bids for which will be opened at Annapolis on Thursday.

Judge Swayne appeared yesterday as a witness in his own behalf in answer to the charges against him now under investigation by the House judiciary committee, in Washington. He made a general denial, but admitted the use of private cars in some of his trips. His statement closed the taking of testimony.

"Gen." Jacob S. Coxey, of Mount Vernon, O., once leader of the "Commonweal Army," has filed a personal petition in bankruptcy in the United States Court. His liabilities are given as $287,000. His assets consist of 2,560 shares of stock in the Coxey Steel and Silica Sand Company and an unsecured note for $11,000.

Friends in New York of Mrs. Mary Lloyd Taintor Mason, divorced wife of Edward P. Mason, son of H. E. Mason, founder of the piano manufacturing house of Mason & Hamlin, were surprised to learn yesterday that she was married a month ago to Daniel Gregory Mason, the younger brother of her former husband. Mrs. Mason was formerly Miss Mary L. Taintor, of East Orange, N. J.

WILL RESIST TARIFF REVISION.

Senator Hale, of Maine, spoke out aggressively in Washington yesterday against tariff revision. He deprecates the agitation that has been in full swing since election day, and promises to resist reduction in the schedules with all his might. The Senator believes that attempts at reduction would seriously disturb business and disrupt the party. He is the first of standpat Senators to come out in unequivocal terms. An opposition, such as his statement presages, would necessarily become a troublesome factor.

"The presidential election was remarkable," Senator Hale began, "in the extent of the republican triumph, and, as is not unusual in such cases, some question has arisen whether the party shall enjoy the fruits of its victory. It is no rare thing, after a political battle has been won, to find the weak sisters coming in and urging the successful party to lower its colors and in whole or in part give up what it has won.

"For myself," he added, in a decisive tone, such as his associates at the Capitol recognize as a signal of an intention not to budge from a stand once taken, "I do not propose to let this be done, except in the face of all the opposition to it which I can help to muster.

"The lessons of the election are plain enough to read. Both the republican party and the President were in high favor with the people. The President's individuality was a very strong element in increasing republican majorities everywhere. He helped the ticket in every State, and thousands of democrats voted for him who have not before been, and never will be, republicans. As for the poor gentleman up at Esopus, who was not in it at all, he was a good judge and is a good lawyer, but he never succeeded in arousing any interest with the American people.

"But beyond all this, the republican position and the issues which it maintained not only commanded popular support, but those issues were advanced and upheld in just as bold and courageous fashion as were the words and acts of the President. The position of the party upon three great issues—the protective tariff, the currency, and the handling of overgrown, dictatorial, and oppressive trusts—was simply impregnable. Every attack by the democrats upon these positions, touching either of these great issues, met with disgraceful defeat, and when the American people woke up on the morning after the election and knew its results, they had a right to expect and to assume that the policy of the party upon these three great questions had been settled and would be so considered during the next four years of administration. I do not look to see any movement on the part of the administration either for tariff revision or for any form of reciprocity that will give away the benefits of trade, which are now in our favor, with any country whatever."

Death Superinduced by Excitement.

Rev. Dr. William Paxton, of Princeton, N. J., University and Seminary, died at his home yesterday after a two-weeks illness. Dr. Paxton was in his eighty-first year, and his death was the result of a paralytic stroke caused by over-excitement. With his family, he attended the Yale-Princeton football game on November 12 and manifested great interest in the contest. When he returned the doctors were summoned at once, and it was found that he was suffering a stroke of paralysis. He gradually improved until Friday, and hopes for his recovery were expressed, but a relapse weakened him and resulted in his death yesterday. Dr. Paxton was the oldest living trustee of Princeton.

Admiral Dewey has declined to accept membership in the international court for an adjustment of the differences arising from the action of the Russian Baltic fleet in firing on English vessels in the North Sea.

President Roosevelt, it is said, will appoint Judge Adam C. Carson, of Riverton, to be Associate Judge of the Supreme Court at Manila. Judge Carson is at present the judge of the Court of First Instance, with headquarters at Cebu.

Mrs. Mary F. Rice, widow of Dr. Samuel B. Rice, died at her home in King George county, Saturday night, aged about 70 years. She is survived by five children and six step-children, one of the latter being Mrs. Judge Roger A. Pryor, of New York.

News has been received in Fredericksburg of the arrest in Orange county of two men on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of John Hume, who was found dead near the public road not far from Rhoadesville, in that county, on November 8.

Benjamin Dun Douglass, son of Robert Dun Douglass, managing director of R. G. Dun & Co., died at Thomasville, Ga., on Friday, where he had gone seeking health. He was 50 years of age and lately lived in Warrenton. He died of heart trouble.

The New Jerusalem Lutheran Church, of Lovettsville, Loudoun county, was rededicated Sunday with appropriate ceremonies. The pastor is Rev. Asa Richards. The congregation, which is a large one, has extensively remodeled and improved the main edifice.

Arthur L. Henley and Miss Dora B. Proffit, and Richard J. Henley and Miss Annie F. Proffit were married by Rev. R. B. Beadles at Manchester Sunday. The grooms are brothers and prosperous farmers of Goochland county and the brides are sisters and popular girls of the same neighborhood in that county.

John W. Churchman, of Augusta, is announced as a candidate for speaker of the House of Delegates. S. L. Kelly, of Richmond; Robert E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax, and W. D. Cardwell, of Hanover, are the candidates previously named. Speaker John F. Ryan, of Loudoun, has stated that he will not again accept the honor.

Stephen Putney, jr., of Richmond, left Kansas City yesterday for St. Louis to remain at Jefferson barracks until his father can arrange for his discharge from the army. He had recovered all the jewelry pawned save one ring, which, it is asserted, was stolen by a chance friend. It was denied that young Putney left St. Louis with an actress. The Kansas City police say that the boy's story of abduction was untrue, that a spirit of adventure caused him to leave St. Louis and that he admits selling the jewelry and spending the money he received for it. His discharge from the army will be obtained on proving him only 16 years old. In the meanwhile he will stay at Jefferson barracks.

The Vote of Virginia.

The State Board of Canvassers met in Richmond yesterday afternoon and canvassed the election returns. The total vote cast in Virginia was 129,103, less than half the vote cast for Bryan and McKinley four years ago, which was 261,945. Notwithstanding this enormous falling off, the democratic majority remains about the same, though the democratic gain is enormous when the reduced vote is considered. For instance, four years ago, when the combined republican and democratic vote was 261,945, the difference in favor of the democrats was 30,215. Now, with the combined democratic and republican vote 127,088, the difference in favor of the democrats is 34,188. The presidential vote for the candidates of all six parties was as follows: Democratic, 80,638; republican, 46,450; populist, 359; prohibitionist, 1,382; social labor, 218; social democrat, 56.

The counties carried by Roosevelt are Bland, Buchanan, Carroll, Dickenson, Lee, Floyd, Grayson, Greene, Highland, Montgomery, Page, Pulaski, Russell, Smyth, Scott, Tazewell, Washington, Wise and Wythe. The total number of votes cast was 129,103. The official vote for Congressmen was as follows:

First district—Jones, dem., 1,585; Trader, rep., 226. Second—Maynard, dem., 10,962; Hughes, rep., 2,820. Third—Lamb, dem., 7,121; Hanson, rep., 573; Allan, rep., 1,020. Fourth—Southall, dem., 6,031; Alexander, rep., 1,048. Fifth—Swanson, dem., 8,893; Stovall, rep, 4,793. Sixth—Glass, dem., 7,798; Hoge, rep., 3,429. Seventh—Hay, dem., 9,051, Keezel, rep., 4,949. Eighth—Rixey, dem., 7,986; Howard, rep., 2,443. Ninth—Wysor, dem., 11,673; Slemp, rep., 15,926. Tenth—Flood, dem., 9,183, Revercomb, rep., 4,460; Opie, ind. dem., 332.

Today's Telegraphic News

Dogs as Scouts.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—A newspaper correspondent reports an ingenious arrangement by the Japanese armies at the front. They now have a number of dogs, he says, which are sent out to reconnoitre. These dogs which have been most carefully trained, have ropes attached to their bodies, enabling the Japanese to follow them. The barking of the canine scouts informs their masters of the locality of the enemy.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—Dispatches from the front report frequent skirmishes on the Russian left flank near the Shahke river. Apparently the Japanese are continuing their development of a turning movement in this direction, the beginning of which was reported last week. General Rennenkampf reports a hot skirmish on Sunday in which the seventh Japanese regiment and a force of Russians clashed. The Japanese lost 100 killed and injured, while the Russian casualties were 73.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—It is reported that the Japanese made a night attack on "203 Metre Hill," which they succeeded in taking. It is estimated that ninety per cent of the occupation of Port Arthur has now been accomplished. With this height in their possession no part of the harbor is concealed from the Japanese.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—General Kuropatkin reports that the battle south of Mukden was resumed yesterday. The fighting continued until 11 o'clock this morning. He adds: "We collected the dead lying near our position before our centre and right flank. Up to noon we had buried 230 men of the seventh regiment of the ninth reserve brigade. We took a number of rifles and ammunition." A later dispatch from Lieutenant General Sakharoff says that the Japanese were forced to evacuate Tsinchen by Russian artillery and were pursued four versts.

Rome, Nov. 29.—The Mattino is informed that the Japanese will make their first attack on the Russian Baltic fleet in the Straits of Malacca, where they have been preparing to strike an effective blow.

Sensational Death in Hotel.

London, Nov. 29.—Elverton R. Chapman, jr., the son of E. R. Chapman, the wealthy banker of New York, lost his life either by falling or jumping from the third story of the Carlton Hotel last evening. The accident or suicide occurred at the time when the corridors of the hotel were filled with the fashionable guests of the hotel, who were about to go into dinner. The young man who had arrived at the hotel on Saturday, accompanied by his valet, had been indisposed since his arrival. Last night, however, he dressed himself for dinner and left his room. Suddenly his valet and several on the third floor, saw him topple over the banister and fall to the stone floor of the first floor. In falling, he narrowly missed striking Madame Rincon Gallardo, the wife of the Mexican Ambassador. When he struck on the stone flooring a commotion occurred, while the dying man lay groaning in the midst of the guests. He was picked up and taken to his room, where it was found that he had suffered a fracture of the skull, and a broken arm. He died twenty minutes later. Several of the papers assert that Chapman was temporarily deranged, as the result of sickness, and that he had been constantly under the watchful eye of his valet. These reports have it that last night while walking along the corridor on the third floor, he suddenly grasped the banister and leaped over to his death. Other reports favor the accident theory. It is also stated that he attempted to commit suicide on Monday by shooting himself with a revolver, but was prevented by his valet. Elverton Chapman was about 23 years of age. He had been a student at Oxford until last spring. He was in America early in the fall, but returned to Europe some weeks ago for an automobile trip on the continent.

Double Murder

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 29.—The reign of terror which has existed in the Italian colony on the outskirts of Carbondale, is intensified today on account of a double murder which was committed there last night, when Joe Tolerico and Frank Feresi were riddled with bullets in an altercation with the members of a secret society of their fellow countrymen and died a short time afterward in the Emergency Hospital. The only provocation for the murder was that the two men remonstrated with some members of the "society," when they were shot down. The assassins escaped and all the efforts of the police to locate them have been in vain, so far. None of the Italians will give any aid in bringing them to justice because of the terror in which they hold the society.

Death of the Earl of Hardwicke.

London, Nov. 29.—The Earl of Hardwicke, under Secretary of the State for War since 1902, is dead. Albert Edward Philip Henry Yerke, sixth Earl of Hardwicke, was born at the British Embassy in Paris, March 14, 1867. Early in life he entered British political life. In 1886 he was appointed Honorary Attache of her Majesty's Embassy at Vienna, remaining there for five years. In the meantime he had also entered the army, joining the Wiltshire Regiment, of which he become captain in 1888. In 1900 he was appointed under Secretary for India, holding that post until 1892, when he was appointed under Secretary for War.

Father's Horrible Deed.

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 29.—Word was received here today of a horrible murder in Pike county, Kentucky. Enoch Sloan of Shelby, it is reported came home Sunday night and while in a drunken fit, shot his wife and four children and then killed himself. Neighbors aroused by the report of the shots rushed to the scene, but all were dead except the youngest child, which died within an hour. The place is isolated in the mountains and has no wire connections.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 29.—The stock market this morning continued its recent irregular course. The industrial list again possessed the more numerous features of interest. Among the railroad shares New York Central was prominent for strength. Pennsylvania was strong and Baltimore & Ohio was firm, but as a rule the railroad shares were inclined to reaction. When the second hour opened the selling pressure increased.

Thousands Cured.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of Piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the recommendation of our druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex., "and used it for a stubborn case of Piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by all druggists.

Paralytic Cured by Fright.

New York, Nov. 29.—Fifty women and children had a narrow escape from death in a fire which destroyed a five story tenement building at No. 234 Ninth avenue, early today. Mrs. McGlower an old woman, and a paralytic, was cured by fright and excitement. She left her bed and climbed down the fire escape unassisted. The two fire escapes in the rear were quickly jammed with people. Many others fearing to risk the smoke filled stairways, fled to the roof, where they were taken down by the firemen. The building was completely destroyed. The tenants lost all their possessions.

Press Censorship Removed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—A remarkable change in Russian censorship conditions has occurred. In fact, so decided have the changes been that they have almost reached the stage of being revolutionary. One sign of these improved conditions is the continuous publication of a pamphlet, entitled "Progress and Freedom," demanding radical reforms. Another feature is the permission granted the newspapers to freely discuss numerous subjects which were not even allowed to be mentioned. The papers go so far as to expose many of the abuses of the bureaucratic methods of the government.

Suspected of Murder.

New York, Nov. 29.—A general alarm was sent out by the police today for the arrest of Frank Furlong, aged 19, who is wanted on suspicion of having murdered Mrs. F. Mary Keeler, who was found with her skull crushed in, in her home on east 115th street late yesterday afernoon. Furlong is a nephew of the murdered woman and had been fed and cared for by her when he was out of work. All the facts in the case show that the woman was deliberatly murdered for her jewelry valued at abont $400 and $200 in cash.

Citizens' Industrial Association.

New York, Nov. 29.—The second annual convention of the Citizens' Industrial Association, at which the "open shop" will be thoroughly discussed, and plans made for its extension, opened in the Hotel Astor this morning. About 400 representatives business men from all parts of the country were present. During the afternoon papers on the "open shop" were read by several members of the association.

The Races.

Benning, D. C., Nov. 29.—First race—Australian won, Naptumus second, Greencrest third.

Second race—Applause won, Hawtrey second, Only One third.

Third race—Woden won, Woolgatherer second, Walter Cleary third.

Shoots at Judge on Bench.

Rev. Isaac Selby, of Australia, plaintin a divorce suit, yesterday, in San Francisco, shot at Superior Judge Hebbard, who recently justified employers using violence against boycotts, while the judge was on the bench. The bullet came within an inch of Judge Hebbard's head and lodged in his chairback.

Selby recently was sued for divorce and conducted his own defense. Judge Hebbard granted a decree against him. Yesterday while the judge was trying a case Selby arose in Court and fired at him. Judge Hebbard rushed from the bench and grappled with Selby. Court officers subdued Selby and removed him to prison under charge of attempted murder.

"I shot at Judge Hebbard because it seemed to be the only way for a man to get justice in this country," said selby. "My intention was to kill him, but I was trifle nervous and missed."

Women Assaulted.

Two brutal assaults on white women were committed in Portsmouth, Va., yesterday, the scene of the assaults in both places being in stores and the assailant, a negro, probably the same man in each case.

While Miss Jennie Moore, daughter of A. W. Moore, a groceryman, was in her father's place of business yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, an unknown negro entered and asked for a cigarette, and when informed by Miss Moore, who was alone, that she did not have one in the store, he asked for a cake. As Miss Moore turned to grant the negro's request she was struck on the head with a heavy section of lead pipe, several feet in length and two inches in diameter. The girl fell to the floor with a wound in her head and the negro escaped. His murderous assault was witnessed by other negroes, who came to the assistance of Miss Moore. When she had recovered consciousness last night Miss Moore was unable to furnish the police a description of her assailant. Though her condition is serious, the attending physicians believe that she will recover.

Before the police had a chance to hunt for the assailant of Miss Moore they were summoned to the store of Robert Scher, in Brighton, a suburb of Portsmouth, where Mrs. Scher, the wife of the proprietor, had been attacked while alone and struck several times over the head with a heavy lead pipe. She is now in a critical condition.

Mrs. Scher was alone in the store when the negro entered, and after looking around he asked for an article not usually kept in a grocery store and departed, but returned in a few minutes and asked for some cakes. When Mrs. Scher reached under the counter to get the cakes the negro struck her a stunning blow on the back of her neck. In order to prevent an outcry the negro struck Mrs. Scher several times in rapid succession and then fled. Robbery was not committed in either case and the police are working on the theory that both assaults were the work of an insane man.

Another Mysterious Murder.

With her head crushed in, the body of Mrs. Margaret Keeler was found in her apartment on the upper East side of New York late yesterday. Nearby was a 10-inch coupling-pin, with which she had evidently been murdered, for one end of it was covered with blood.

The Keeler family consisted of the husband, who is employed in a local mercantile establishment; James, 12 years, and Mabel, 9 years old. The children say they left home as usual yesterday morning for school. Their father had gone to work earlier and when they started out their mother was in good spirits. At the noon hour they found the door of the apartment locked, but thought their mother was out shopping. When at the close of the afternoon session the boy could not gain entrance to his home, he climbed up the fire escape and found a rear window unlocked. A few minutes later the neighbors were startled to hear him rushing down stairs, screaming "My mother has been killed."

Mrs. Keeler's body was found on her bed and she had been dead several hours. Investigation by the police shows that the woman was murdered in the kitchen and had made a desperate resistance. The murderer then dragged her body into the bedroom and threw it upon the bed. Missing from the flat was jewelry worth $400 and also $200 in cash. The police learned last night that a man had called on Mrs. Keeler several times and had been given something to eat. The fact that the table was set when the murder was done at once seemed to link the visitor of former occasions with the crime. A description of the man was secured.

More Fierce Assaults.

The Japanese are vigorously pressing and trying to turn both the right and left Russiac flanks General Kuropatkin reports that the Japanese began the offensive movement last Thursday near the village of Tsinkhetchen, which is close to Da Pass.

For the last three days there has been fighting at this point, but not of a desperate character. Several times the Japanese have been repulsed, but they have renewed the attacks with increased forces. A heavy snowstorm on Saturday caused a temporary suspension of the battle, the gunners being unable to see through the driving snow. When the weather cleared the Russians discovered a turning movement against their right.

Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, yesterday received a telegram from President Francis, of the World's Fair, stating that President Roosevelt had visited and greatly admired the Mississippi Building while at the fair Saturday.

The governor wired a reply containing the following:

It is of course gratifying to the people of Mississippi to know that they have done one thing that the present President of the United States approves. Doubtless the President's admiration of the Mississippi Building is due to his admiration of Jefferson Davis, of whose last home it is a replica.

Major W. D. Alexander, of the Artillery Corps, has been permitted to resign. Major Alexander was confronted with charges, and had he not promptly tendered his resignation he would have been brought to trial by a court martial.

Alfred S. Ellery, a druggist at 1401 5th street northwest, Washington, died sitting in a chair behind his prescription counter last night.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and become acquainted with its remarkable qualities and you will never wish to be without it. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre, of Shepherdtown, W. V., says: "I had a severe attack of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallable for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c and $1.

Obstructions on King Street.

Orders were issued recently that all chicken coops must be taken from the sidewalks on King street. This action on the part of the authorities has caused some green grocers to utilize show windows for the display of the feathery creation, which is thought by purchasers to be an improvement over the old hamper basket with a covering of net work. Justice Caton in rendering a decision recently on the display of goods upon sidewalks said that during business hours there would be no action taken against merchants who placed goods near their front windows, when such aggregations were in moderation, but after business hours it would be necessary to remove such articles, while none whatever would be allowed on curbs. Some persons, it is alleged, have taken advantage of the privilege, and are not confining themselves within the limits designated by the Police Justice, and complaint was made at the station house today of the precedure of certain persons in allowing ash boxes and other obstructions to remain on sidewalks. Mayor Paff was at the station house this morning in conference with Mr. Caton and Lieutenant Smith concerning these matters, and those who violate the law will be summarily dealt with. It was stated that there was no disposition to impede business in any way, and that later on, when the holiday season draws near, the law might not be so rigidly enforced, but that at present there was no necessity for blocking the sidewalks nor would it be tolerated. It was also determined to enforce the law against owners of wagons when they leave the same in the streets.

Charged with Stealing Comforts.

Patrick O'Neal was arrested last night by Special Officer Mullen on suspicion of stealing three bed comforts from the front of Swan Bro's. store, on King street. Previous to his arrest O'Neal had stopped a lady on the street and in an insolent manner told her he must have lodging and that she must furnish him with the necessary wherewithal. The lady gave him money in order to get him to leave her. Later it was learned that the man had been endeavoring to sell the comforts for one dollar. The goods were taken from the front of the store about five o'clock yesterday evening. O'Neal was brought before the Police Court this morning, but in the absence of material witnesses his case was continued.

Fought Over Beans.

A colored individual went into a saloon in the southern section of the city last night and called for a can of beans. He opened it and after eating a few of the legumes repaired to the pool room, leaving the open can on the counter. Carlin Murray, a spectator of the procedure, made a movement towards the beans and was eating them voraciously, when Lorenzo Chase, another darkey, attempted to aid Murray in cleaning the platter. This act precipitated a collision, and Murray, coming out second-best, procured a warrant for Chase's arrest, charging him with assault. The case came before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning, and after hearing the evidence he fined them $2.50 each.

Charged With Stealing Satchel.

Officers Roberts, Sherwood and Beach late yesterday evening arrested a man, who gave his name as John Chatterbach, charged with stealing a satchel belonging to R. R. Grant, of this city. From the evidence in the Police Court this morning it appeared that the owner of the satchel was at the Southern Railway depot for the purpose of boarding a southbound train and while awaiting its arrival from Washington placed his satchel on the platform, when Chatterbach picked it up and went away. The accused in his defense said his object was simply to take care of the satchel. Justice Caton fined him $5 for his pains.

Don't Lose Your Vote.

Again it may be well to remind the tax paying public that all taxes are due December 1, and intending voters in 1905 should remember that pre-payment of poll taxes must be made by December 1, in order to insure them the right to cast the ballot. Last year, under special act of the legislature, the time in which payment might be made was extended thirty days, or until January 1, but that act applied only to last year. It is also well to remember that 5 per cent will be added to all unpaid taxes after December 1.

Supper.

A number of members of the Woman's Auxiliary met in Lee Camp Hall last night and perfected arrangements for the supper Wednesday and Thursday nights, which promises to be a very interesting affair. Those who have promised contributions will please send them to the hall, No. 806 Prince street, as early as possible on Wednesday morning.

Fined Thirty Dollars.

Amelia Voletge, who about two weeks ago reported that she had been held up by two men near Four Mile Run and robbed of $450 in cash, was arrested by the Alexandria county authorities a day or two ago on the charge of selling liquor without a license, and fined $30. The woman keeps a boarding-house for laborers a short distance from Four Mile Run.

More Discharges.

There was another discharge of mechanics at the Southern Railway shops in this city yesterday. The furloughs were mainly of operatives in the machine shops. During the past few months numbers of men employed on trains have been discharged, while there has been a gradual depletion in the force in the various mechanical departments.

Concert and Dramatic Reading.

The Coventers of the Second Presbyterian Church, a juvenile organization, will give a dramatic reading and concert at the old Presbyterian Church on south Fairfax street on Thursday evening next. Mrs. A. T. Hanson, who will participate, is an effective, artistic and dramatic reader.

Personal

Mr. Charles S. Sherwood, now with Mr. R. E. Knight, has accepted the position of shipping clerk with the Old Dominion Glass Company.

Mrs. A. C. Weech left yesterday to attend the national convention of the W. C. T. U., which convenes in Philadelphia. Before returning to the city she will visit Mr. Clinton B. Weech and Rev. R. W. H. Weech.

Capt. W. E. Bullock today received a letter from his old home in England, stating that his brother is extremely ill and not expected to live.

Mr. Irvin Brawner, who formerly resided near St. Asaph Junction, has taken possession of his new home, 417 north Columbus street, where he will in future live. The house was constructed by Mr. J. T. Shaw, and is a beautiful addition to the residential section of Alexandria.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Chatterbach, arrested by Officers Roberts, Sherwood and Beach charged with stealing a satchel, was fined $5.

Lorenzo Chase, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with assaulting Carlin Murray, also colored, was fined $2.50.

An engineer of the Southern Railway, arrested by Officer Allen charged with running a locomolive at an unlawful speed within the city limits, was fined $10.

River Notes.

The three masted schooner John J. Hanson is at W. A. Smoot & Co.'s wharf loading ties for Boston.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber for Smoot & Co., and H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

The ferry steamer George Washington is still lying in her slip at this port, and no one hereabouts seems to know what disposition is to be made of the boat. As was stated last week in the Gazette, the company owning the steamer is loth to make the repairs ordered by the government inspectors, and were they to conclude to do so, weeks would elapse before the boat could be placed in the required condition, and by that time the river will probably be filled with ice. The boat belongs to the Fort Lee Ferry Company in New York, and was built in 1856.

Seriously Burned.

Mrs. M. Laupheimer was seriously burned at her home on north Royal street early this morning. She was in the act of starting a fire when the blaze suddenly arose from the stove and set her hair on fire. With presence of mind, she picked up a piece of carpet and as quickly as possible wrapped it tightly around her head, thus smothering the blaze, not, however, before the fire had caused painful and serious effect.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Turkeys, which were selling last week at from 20 to 25 cents a pound, are now offered at 12½ cents.

Mr. M. B. Lamdin has sold to Mrs. Mary J. Hantzmon a house and lot on the west side of Patrick street between Cameron and Queen.

A fire was discovered in a frame house on Columbus street near Franklin this morning. Neighbors extinguished the flames and no alarm was sounded.

Edmond Hurst, son of J. M. Hurst, died at his home at Annandale at an early hour yesterday morning. His remains will be interred at Falls Church tomorrow.

All persons who are to take part in the "tableaux" for the benefit of the "Good Shepherd Mission," are requested to meet at Mrs Oscar Carter's residence at 7:30 tonight.

Kaufmann Bros. advertise a large and varied assortment of Christmas goods. This old Alexandria house is always stocked with attractive goods, and their holiday display is a special feature.

The rummage sale for the benefit of Pohick Church is proving a great success, crowds visiting it daily. A number of well bound books by good writers, and pretty bric-a-brac which have been contributed, would make excellent gifts for Christmas and are selling at nominal prices.

A Startling Test.

To save a life Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

A Heavy Load.

To lift that load off the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are cureable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 297 Main street, New Britain, Conn., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiment and will positively cure all stomach trouble. Sold by all druggists.

Terrible Accident.

There was a wild panic among 300 girls in Citron's shirtwaist factory, in Boud street, New York, yesterday afternoon, when Fannie Landow, a girl of 19, an employe, got her hair caught in a piece of machinery and had most of it pulled out. The 300 girls are all employed in one big loft in the top of the building. Constantly moving power shafts run through the room and their sewing machines are connected with these shafts. The Landow girl yesterday afternoon stooped to pick something from the floor. Her hair was caught and she was dragged from her seat. The revolving shaft, which is filled with small cog wheels, began to tear her hair out by the roots, and her screams threw the girls into a wild panic. It was several minutes before John Jacobi, the foreman could find out what was the matter, and sometime longer before he could stop the shaft. The girls had begun to pour out of the building, and the elevator boy sent for an ambulance. The girl then unconscious, was still caught in the shaft and it took four men, including a surgeon, to cut away the hair and free her. She was taken to the hospital in a critical condition.

The Virginia State Council, Catholic Knights of America, held its twelfth biennial convention in Petersburg on Sunday. Delegates were present from all the branches of the order in the State. Reports of the officers showed the council to be in good condition. The increase of assessment rates was discussed. The following officers were elected for the next two years:

President—J. W. Long, of Norfolk.

Vice President—C. E. Turner, of Roanoke.

Treasurer—F. M. Catogne, of Richmond.

Secretary—John E. Burke, of Norfolk.

James H. Bailey, of Petersburg, was elected Representative to the Supreme body, which convenes in Asheville, N. C., in May next. John E. Burke of Norfolk, Alternate.

Petersburg was selected as the next place of meeting.

The Supreme Court at Madrid today decided the suit of Dr. Lascarraga against former Minister of War General Weyler in favor of the surgeon. Weyler had refused to pay Lascarraga's bill for attending Madame Weyler. Weyler claimed that madame had called the doctor without his authorization.

MEDICINAL.

Lungache,

pains in chest, bronchitis, and similar signs of a cold on the lungs, can be quickly relieved and cured by

HAMLINS

WIZARD OIL

No time should be lost, because lung trouble may easily develop into pneumonia or consumption. Hamlins Wizard Oil, applied to the chest, relieves the pain and inflammation, loosens up the cough and soon cures the disease.

"My little girl," writes Rich. W. Thornton of Quray, Colo., "suffered more or less with a cold on the lungs since her birth, and finally the trouble became serious. No remedies gave relief, until we tried Hamlins Wizard Oil, one bottle of which permanently cured her." Price 50c and $1.00.

Sold and recommended by ALL DRUGGISTS.

Chrysanthemum Salad.

As a result of the visit of Prince Fushimi, of Japan, to America, "chrysanthemum salad" may soon be a favorite item on the menu cards of up to date cafes. The prince gave the recipe to Colonel Thomas H. Symons, of the army, one day while they were riding around Washington viewing the sights. "The prince was greatly pleased," said Colonel Symons, "to see the profusion of chrysanthemums that greeted him wherever he went. He was also amazed at the perfection to which the American florists have brought the stately flower. During one of our rides I was surprised and somewhat shocked to hear the prince say that the big blooms form an article of diet in Japan. I had always believed that the chrysanthemum was a sacred flower in the Mikado's kingdom. The method of preparing the flowers for the table, the prince said, was as follows: First immerse the blooms in boiling water for from five to six minutes. Then take them out of the hot water and plunge them in cold. After being thoroughly chilled the petals are pulled off and are seasoned to taste with oil, vinegar, pepper and salt. This, the prince said, was a favorite salad in his country with all classes. Not only are the fresh flowers used that way, the prince went on to say, but they are also dried for winter use. Before drying the petals are plucked, and when the housewife wishes to use them they are soaked in water until they expand to their original size. Then they are treated with the boiling and cold water baths, as the fresh flowers. The prince said that as a general thing only the white and yellow chrysanthemums are used in the preparation of salads in Japan."

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gulledge, of Verbens, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Chronic Diarrhœa Cured.

Mr. Walter Richardson, of Troutville, Va., had an attack of diarrhœa that came near ending his life. His physician had failed to relieve him and the disease had become chronic when he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. It soon cured him and he now recommends that preparation whenever an opportunity offers. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

Mothers Praise It.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, postmaster of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly." One minute Cough Cure relieves coughs, makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation, and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold by all druggists.

On this 25th day of November, A. D., 1904, on reading the petition of James D. Bibb, jr., bankrupt, for discharge, it is ordered by the court that a hearing be had upon the same on the 10TH DAY OF DECEMBER, A. D., 1904, before said court, at Alexandria, in said district, at twelve o'clock noon; and that notice thereof be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the court, that the clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness the Honorable Edmund Waddill, jr., judge of the said court, and the seal thereof, at Alexandria, in said district, on the 26th day of November, A. D. 1904.

Attest:
GEORGE E. BOWDEN, Clerk.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 22nd day of November, 1904.

City Council of Alexandria, which sues, &c., vs. Samuel Thomas, or if he be dead, his unknown heirs. In chancery.

Memo. The object of this suit is to subject the following property, in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, to-wit: Beginning on the east side of Fairfax street, between Queen and Princess streets, and at a point distant 28 feet 3 inches northerly from the lot of ground purchased by Lawrence Sanford from Lucas Gareway and running thence northerly with Fairfax street 28 feet 3 inches; thence easterly, parallel to Princess street, 98 feet; thence southerly, parallel with Fairfax street, 28 feet 3 inches, and thence westerly 98 feet to the beginning, subject to the payment of an annual rent in fee of seven pounds, one shilling and three pence, specie, payable to William Fowle, his heirs and assigns, to the payment of the lien of the City Council of Alexandria thereon for taxes, and all other liens.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendant, Samuel Thomas, is not a resident of this State; that whether said Samuel Thomas is alive or dead affiant does not know; that if the said Samuel Thomas is dead the names of his heirs are unknown: It is ordered, That said defendant or defendants appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect his or their interests in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. A copy—TESTE:
